The Southern Utah Chapter of the University of Utah Alumni Association kicked off its 2008-2009 Lecture Series with the presentation “Global Warming — The Facts and the Fiction” on October 9—in a new location, and at a new time.

All lectures are complimentary. For more information, please contact Rick Miles, president of the Southern Utah Alumni Chapter of the University of Utah, at r.miles@raymondjames.com or (435) 688-8800.

SCHEDULE
(at The Gardner Center unless otherwise noted)

November 13, 2008
Paul Tikalsky, Ph.D., and Larry Reavely, Ph.D.
Department of Civil Engineering,
College of Engineering
“Building a Sustainable World for the 21st Century”

January 8, 2009
Duncan Metcalfe, Ph.D.
Utah Museum of Natural History and Department of Archaeology,
College of Social & Behavioral Science
“Range Creek Canyon Rediscovered”

February 12, 2009
Brian T. Saam, Ph.D.
Associate Dean, Department of Physics,
College of Science
“From Atomic Physics to Seeing Lungs Breathe”

March 19, 2009
Donna Poulton, Ph.D.
Curator of Art of Utah and the West,
Utah Museum of Fine Arts
“The Art of Red Rock Country”
Held at the Eccles Fine Arts Center

April 22, 2009
Stefan Pulst, M.D.
Chair, Department of Neurology, and
William T. Couldwell, M.D., Ph. D.,
Department of Neurosurgery, and
E. A. “Steve” Stevens, M.D.,
Chair, Department of Radiology
“Collaborating to Unlock Medicine’s Final Frontier and Improve Care”
Location to be determined